A local landmark since 1934

The Reedville Cafe is a local landmark... a real neighborhood gathering place since its origins as the Shack Tavern in 1934. The Cafe has been in the Van Beveren family since 1950 when Al and Polly bought the Shack "lock, stock and barrel" and started serving hamburgers, fried chicken, fresh whole Dungeness crab on newspaper (in season) and, of course, Blitz beer (for 10 cents a glass back in the 50s). Many locals fondly remember The Crab Shack, a fresh seafood market, located just west of the present Cafe, also owned by the Van Beverens.

Rick Van Beveren, Al and Polly's son, has run the business since 1978, remodeling and expanding the kitchen, dining rooms and outdoor areas several times. In 1990 the name was changed to Reedville Cafe & Catering, reflecting the focus on good food served in a warm, friendly setting and launching the off-premises catering program, located in the building just north of the Cafe. In 2004 a bar, new dining area and restrooms were added and the Cafe refurbished to better serve our growing neighborhood and loyal clientele.

Fresh, Local Ingredients

As part of our mission, we strive to use fresh local ingredients and suppliers, especially in the preparation of the signature and seasonal menu items and that make us unique...like Oregon Dungeness crab and bay shrimp in our Oregon Coast Omelet; Delphina's buns, Fulton ground beef, Tillamook cheddar cheese on our Shack Special Burger.

Always Something Happening

Each month we feature menu specials featuring seasonal ingredients. We also host several events each year, including our annual CrabFest the entire month of January, Steakfest in April, Sizzlin' Summer Barbeque in July and Oktoberfest in the fall.

The owners, management and staff of the Cafe are all proud of our little Cafe and to be a vital part of our neighborhood and the Hillsboro Community. Thanks for coming in... hope to see you often!

C R A B F E S T

Join us this January at the Reedville Cafe for our annual month-long Crabfest Celebration, commemorating our 20 years (from 1955-75) in the Seafood business at the Crab Shack. Look for "Louie", the giant crab that sits atop the Cafe in January.

■ Every weekend during Crabfest, the Reedville Cafe serves fresh, whole Oregon Dungeness Crab with garlic cheese bread, cole slaw, butter and all the right tools. You may have to work for your dinner... but it's well worth it.

■ The Cafe also serves several classic crab dishes during Crabfest including our Crab Bisque, Crab Louies, and other favorites.

■ Of course, you don't have to wait until January... because you can order a Grilled Crab & Cheese Sandwich, or a Crab Caesar Salad from our Lunch & Dinner Menu anytime.
